CALGARY YOUTH JUSTICE COMMITTEES

Cheap and Free Activities for Youth

Remember: Having a place to burning energy helps young people maintain emotional, mental and physical balance.

- 1. Go swimming! Southland or Village Square Leisure Centre Drop-in fees are $6.00 for youth which includes access to the wave pool, fitness centre, exercise and aqua fit classes, gymnasiums, scheduled Public Skating and Shinny Hockey (when available). An admission allows you to stay all day or to leave and return later the same day (subject to facility capacity).
 - a. Wave Pools - Calgary has three wave pools, part of the "Leisure Centres": Village Square Leisure Centre (NE), Trico Family Wellness Centre (SE), and Southland Leisure Centre (SW). Admission is $6.00 for all-inclusive youth admission.
 - b. Westside Recreation Centre - Indoors, you can swim, do fitness activities in the Youth Wellness Centre, walk or run on the running track, drop-in sports, basketball or badminton, wall climbing, ice skating in winter or in-line skating in summer. Outdoors, go skateboarding or play outdoor basketball. All this is included with admission of $9 for youth.
- 2. Teen Night at Village Square Leisure Centre! Friday nights 7:30-10 pm. Youth ages 12 to 17 (ID required) can hang out in the youth room with friends, compete in Nintendo Wii, play games and sports in the gymnasium and swim in the pool. General youth admission applies.
- 3. Youth Night at Southland Leisure Centre! Join the action-packed Friday nights! The Sport Hall and Water Park are youth exclusive for you and friends to enjoy playing a variety of sports and activities, swim and dance to music with a live DJ. General youth admission applies.
- 4. Bowling! There are at least 8 bowling alleys across the city. The cost is $6-7 depending on whether it's 5 or 10 pin you want to play. Shoes can be rented for $3.00. Glow bowling is also available at some bowling alleys at certain times.
- 5. Explore thrift shops and flea markets! There are lots of thrift stores and you can try on crazy clothes and create a new look! As for markets, Crossroads, Kingsland, and Hillhurst Sunnyside are generally open Friday, Saturday and Sunday.
- 6. See a movie! Canyon Meadows is a discount cinema. Cost is $3-5 depending on time and day of the week.
- 7. Visit a park! Take a ball or your bike for exercise – or just walk. You can walk by the river too! Calgary has wonderful parks including Bowness, Carburn, Glenmore, Nosehill, Prairie Winds, Riley, Sandy Beach, Stanley Park, and Weaselhead. Or take your skateboard to Shaw Millennium Park. Go to the same park during different seasons – it's a whole new adventure rolling in the leaves in the fall, making snow angels in winter, looking for the first spring buds and flowers, and lying in the sun listening to tunes in summer.

- 8. Go to the playground! As long as you're not displacing the younger kids...swinging, sliding, climbing the monkey bars.
- 9. Ride your bike! Take your bike for a spin on the Calgary pathways and bikeways. Call 3-1-1 and they will mail a map to you so you can plan your route.
- 10. A Lot of Everything at Shakers Fun Centre! Calgary's largest year-round entertainment centre. (Open Friday, Saturday and Sunday) Two options for passes: unlimited day pass includes unlimited use of Go Karts, Mini Golf, Laser Tag, Climbing-Tower & Indoor Playground for $27.95 per person +GST; or indoor value pass includes unlimited Laser Tag, Climbing-Tower & Indoor Playground (max. 54" tall) for $17.95 per person +GST. 9900 Venture Avenue SE. Shakerscalgary.com.
- 11. Rock Climbing! There are 8 climbing walls in Calgary. The climbing centre at Mount Royal University has an indoor climbing wall open from September to June. For 13-16 year olds, they can top rope climb, top rope belay and boulder without adult supervision. In order to belay, the participant must have successfully completed a Recreation belay test. On your first visit, you must go through the orientation and sign a waiver (a parent or legal guardian must be present for the orientation and to sign the waiver).
- 12. Feed the birds! Build a birdfeeder to attract the birds to your window - just don't hang it close to doorways or you'll have mice and squirrels coming to visit you! To make a birdfeeder, cut one metre of heavy string or twine and tie one end of it around a large pinecone. Cover the pinecone generously with peanut butter and roll in birdseed, dried fruit and sunflower seeds. With the remaining string, tie the pinecone to the branch of a tree.
- 13. Learn how police solve crimes! YOUTHLINK – the Calgary Police Interpretive Centre, 2nd Floor, 316 - 7 Avenue SE (403)206-8927, Website: youthlinkcalgary.com
Kids experience first-hand how police investigate crimes, deal with crime-related issues and respond. It is a unique chance to go deep inside the world of police and the crimes they face. It's a hands-on centre that can teach and inform youth on some of the big issues they deal with today: drugs, violence, internet predators, gangs, bullies and more. The goal is to involve and educate through activities and interactive exhibits. Kids are invited to get into uniform, get fingerprinted or see the outcomes of poor decisions.
- 14. Pilot an F-18 fighter jet simulator! Calgary Spaceport, Calgary International Airport (third level, by food court) (403) 735-1319. Take bus #57 from the Whitehorn LRT Station to the airport. Unique education and entertainment facility focusing on space and aeronautics makes learning fun and accessible using the latest computer, simulation and communication technology. Hands-on exhibits and displays. SpacePort features a soaring aluminum prototype of NASA's space shuttle orbiter, interactive displays from the Canadian Space Agency, flight and motion simulators, a moon rock exhibit and many more exciting interactive space and aviation adventures.
- 15. Escape to an oasis! Devonian Gardens, TD Square, Downtown
Expected to reopen in the summer of 2012. This indoor oasis is a 2.5 acre indoor park on the top floor of downtown's TD square. It has plants, fountains, reflecting pools, waterfalls, bridges, and art gallery and a playground under its massive glass roof. In the winter, the reflecting pool is an outdoor skating rink.

- 16. Take a walk in nature! Inglewood Bird Sanctuary (SE) From Downtown: Follow 9 Ave through Inglewood past Blackfoot Trail, to Sanctuary Rd. Take a walk through the best place in Calgary for bird watching, nestled in a well-protected curve in the Bow. The sanctuary area has a variety of habitats attracting lots of different birds. Binoculars are helpful, but optional.
- 17. See how fish hatch and grow! Sam Livingston Fish Hatchery (SE), Blackfoot Tr. and 17 Ave SE, north to 17A St SE. <http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=ecojDV9O8xY>
In the Discovery Centre, look into the eyes of Alberta's 65 fishes, drink with a dinosaur and crawl through a beaver lodge. The hatchery is the source of trout caught in the world-famous Bow River trout fishing habitat downstream from Calgary. Hatchery tour at noon and 2 pm daily is $3 for youth. Open Tu-Sa 11am-4pm and open to 8 pm.
- 18. Take a long, long walk (or bike ride)! Elbow River Pathway (SW) This popular pathway goes around the Glenmore Reservoir, and then continues downstream to Fort Calgary, where it joins the Bow River Pathway. The path connects Glenmore Park, River Park, Stanley Park, and Lindsay Park, and then snakes behind the Stampede Grounds (this path section closed during Stampede Week). This pathway is well-treed but has some significant hills. From Sandy Beach to the Bow River the path is pretty.
- 19. Discover how your brain reacts to falling in love! TELUS Spark Centre, 220 St. George's Drive NE, (403)817-6800 <http://www.sparkscience.ca/explore/being-human/>

- 31. Ice skating! A lot of fun whether you know how to skate or not. Check out www.arenamaps.com for an easy way to locate an ice skating rink near you. And what about Olympic Plaza or Bowness Park for an evening skate?
- 32. Make a snow angel! Flop down backward in the snow. Then move your arms up and down and legs apart and you've got yourself a terrific snow angel. Now grab some food coloring mixed with water in a spray bottle and decorate it!
- 33. Go snowshoeing! Rent snowshoes for $15 and head off to the closest park.
- 34. Go cross-country skiing! Rent skis and boots and head out on a trail at Canada Olympic Park (COP) or Shaganappi Golf Course. Rentals at COP are $25 for a full day or $19 for 4 hours. You'll need to have a credit card.
- 35. Build a snowman! Start with a snowball, and then roll it all around on the ground so it picks up more snow and turns into a huge ball. There you have the bottom part of the snowman. Do it two more times for the body and head of your snowman. Grab rocks and sticks to give it a personality. Put your favorite hat on it, give it a carrot nose and spray it with your food coloring/water spray bottle to give it some character. Snap a picture next to your new pal.
- 36. Shoveling! Sounds like work, but it can be so much fun. Offer to shovel neighborhood driveways for money.
- 37. Build a snow fort! On the next sunny day with a good amount of heavy, sticky snow on the ground, head to your yard or a nearby park and find a big snowdrift. If there isn't one, use a shovel to create a big mound of snow. Pack it down as hard as you can, and then start digging. Keep digging until you have a little room, and then use a spray bottle filled with water to spray down all surfaces (inside and out); this will harden and stabilize the fort. Dress up the fort by adding a couple drops of food coloring to the spray bottle and spray the exterior for a fun, vibrant effect.
- 38. Miniature Golfing! There are about 5 places in Calgary for mini golfing. It costs about $10 for youth and seniors – take your grandpa!
- 39. Go swimming! Sikome Lake - Life's a beach at SE Calgary's famous swimming hole. Enjoy cooling down on a hot day, bring your inflatables (ball, boat, etc.) and take a picnic lunch. The lake is filled at the beginning of June each year.
- 40. Wade in the river! Stanley Park (SW) From the West: Lansdowne @ Elbow Dr., head northeast along the river; From the East: on 42 Ave SE west of Macleod Tr. S.
The river-side park is close to downtown, nestled between Elbow River and Macleod Trail. Swim at the outdoor pool (open mid-June to Labour Day) or wade in the Elbow River. Suntan in the summer beside the tennis courts or beside the river. You can also play tennis or lawn bowling (Italian "bocce").
